

Auburn Falling Everywhere

In autumn I remember
As if she were still here
A girl I once knew with
Auburn-colored hair
I've spent a lifetime
Searching everywhere
But I just can't find
Another to compare
With that girl with
The auburn-colored hair

From Gallup to Silver City
On down to Old Mexico
I've searched every corner
Of every barrio
But I just can't find
Another to compare
With that girl with
The auburn-colored hair

Young and foolish
I did not appreciate
What I had until
It was too late
I've spent a lifetime
Searching everywhere
But I just can't find
Another to compare
With that girl with
The auburn-colored hair
Falling everywhere
