

My Angel's Wings Are Fragile Things

My angel's wings are fragile things
They seem to break so easily
Please don't tempt her with a careless whisper
That could take her away from me

My angel has a weakness for
Pretty boys who play guitar
You and your 6-string sure are something
It would be nice to hear you play
But her wings are fragile things
And you'd only break them if you stay

The little party had just started
When I heard above the noise
A late-night brother speak to another
It was a warning straight from the heart

Repeat chorus
