

Phoenix Heat

We meet in shadows
Away from the sun
Holding back nothing
Restless and young
Burning alive
To learn about love
There's no turning back
From the first touch

We have waited
All summer long
For this chance
To be alone
Far away from
Those who say
We're too young
To feel this way
It's too hot to sleep
In the Phoenix heat
Flesh gets weak
In the Phoenix heat

I see the hunger in
Your almost holy eyes
I feel the racing of
Your heartbeat against mine
It's too hot to sleep
In the Phoenix heat
