

That's How Rumors Start

Every day at 5 PM
It's 2 for 1 at Johnny's Inn
We arrive at 5 on the dot
Leave separately at 6 o'clock
Johnny says and I know it's true
We're leaving too many clues
People in a bar love to talk
Such carelessness could get us caught

It would come as no surprise
If this bar were full of spies
But Johnny's happy hour is all we've got
And we can't sacrifice
The happiest hour of our lives
Just because he says that's how rumors start
Johnny says that's how rumors start

Johnny's heard and seen it all
Tragedies big and small
Ours is just another cause
That's about to be lost
We appreciate his concern
But some people never learn
Until it's too late
To unseal their fate

It would come as no surprise
If this bar were full of spies
But Johnny's happy hour is all we've got
And we can't sacrifice
The happiest hour of our lives
Just because he says that's how rumors start
Johnny say that's how rumors start
