

The Plan

In a convenience store
On Sunset Boulevard
Roxanne sells gasoline
To fuel her dreams
Of becoming a star

Someday the right connection will drive in
And Roxy will let him sweep her
Off her feet into the driver's seat of his sedan
Racing off into the future with
A director or producer is the plan

Roxanne's into high octane
And relocated to LA
To fill up bigger tanks
In a place the pumps crank
All night and day

Someday the right connection will breeze in
And Roxy will let him sweep her
Off her feet into the bucket seat of his Trans Am
Racing off into the future with
A director or producer is the plan
