

Your Actions Speak Softer Than Words

Home after you're so dog-tired
No conversation is desired
I don't mind your distant mood
You'll be moving closer soon
I don't miss what I haven't heard
Cause every time I think it might
Be the silent treatment tonight
Your actions speak softer than words

After the noise of 8 to 5
You're ready for some peace and quiet
I back off and give you room
Let you wind down on your own
Don't care if hello's all I've heard
Cause just when it seems that I'm
The last thing on your mind
Your actions speak softer than words

You do your talking silently
But I hear every single word you say to me
What a talker you can be

I don't mind your distant mood
You'll be moving closer soon
I don't miss what I haven't heard
Cause every time I think it might
Be the silent treatment tonight
Your actions speak softer than words
Your actions speak softer than words
