

Chewing on a Tums
and Drinking Canada Dry

Got a letter today from an old friend in the States
She just wanted to say Hi
It's been a year since our break up
She wrote it's time for us to make up
Then she asked how I've been getting by I've seen better days was my reply
I'm chewing on a Tums and drinking Canada Dry

It was a promotion this job in Toronto
I transferred up here willingly
I thought you would follow you decided not to
And I said and did some foolish things
And girl I'm not gonna lie
I'm chewing on a Tums and drinking Canada Dry

Sure would like to give you better news
That's something I could really use
But girl I'm just watching the snowflakes fly
Chewing on a Tums and drinking Canada Dry
